Saturday School English Language Programmes

Pre FCE

Introduction

On this course we aim to provide a very strong foundation for students to build on as they prepare for the next year's First Certificate in English examination. The language introduced and practiced in these lessons will be useful to students in their schoolwork and also when they talk to friends and teachers in English. In addition, the FCE certificate which most students will gain later in their study is recognised all over the world as an indication of good competence with the English language.
